

i have a plan for using rendered animal proteins, as a substitute for fishmeal, in a biofloc system along with small hammer mill and extruders to recover proteins from heads that are discarded during processing, including from nearby farms an onsite integrated feed mill, i need investors

Anonymous