

Dear NOAA Panel,

Thank you for accepting my suggestion for area 3.

Novel feed microingredients have great promise for improved health performance in aquaculture. In some cases these can work synergistically with alternative feedstuffs—for example, a novel product from Aova Technologies which has shown significant increase in growth and feed efficiency of trout, even when the diet contains a large percentage of plant-based protein.

~~~~~

Briana Froseth

Aova Technologies, Inc.