

Re Alternative feeds:

Promote non-carnivorous fish species as aquaculture alternative

We suggest that, rather than attempt to promote either development of non-animal-based feeds for aquacultured fish, or genetically engineering variants of carnivorous fishes that can grow well with plant-based feeds, NOAA instead promote the cultivation of naturally vegetarian fish species.

Sincerely

Ron Huber
Penobscot Bay Watch